Anxious to project strength just four weeks from Election Day, Trump tweeted on Tuesday morning that he is planning to attend next week's debate with Democrat Joe Biden in Miami.
"It will be great!" he said.
Trump returned to the White House on Monday night aboard Marine One, gingerly climbing the South Portico steps before removing his mask and giving a double thumbs-up from the terrace, where aides had arranged American flags for the sunset occasion.
He entered the White House, where aides were visible milling about the Blue Room, without wearing a face covering.
In a video released later, Trump offered a

"Don't be afraid of it," Trump said. "You're going to beat it. We have the best medical equipment, we have the best medicines." His remarks were strong, but he was taking deeper breaths than usual as he delivered them.
On Tuesday, Trump also returned to his previous comparisons of COVID-19 to the seasonal flu.
"Many people every year, sometimes over 100,000, and despite the Vaccine, die from the Flu," he tweeted. "Are we going to close down our Country? No, we have learned to live with it, just like we are learning to live with Covid, in most populations far less lethal!!!"
Republican Senator John Cornyn of Texas told the Houston Chronicle editorial board that Trump had "let his guard down" in his effort to show that the country was moving beyond

"Most of the people aren't so lucky as the president," with an in-house medical unit and access to experimental treatments, added Nace, an expert on infections in older adults.
"It's an unconscionable message," agreed Dr Sadiya Khan of Northwestern University Feinberg School of Medicine. "I would go so far as to say that it may precipitate or worsen spread."
Meanwhile, people surrounding Biden are taking heightened measures to protect the self-described "tactile politician" from the virus.
When Jill Biden noticed her husband standing too close to journalists for her comfort while taking questions on Monday, she walked up and pulled the 77-year-old US presidential candidate back.

ANNOUNCEMENT REGARDING UNCLAIMED CASH DIVIDENDS OF SHAREHOLDERS OF THE Gulf Cement Company (P.S.C.) WHICH ARE HELD WITH THE Company IN THE PERIOD PRIOR TO MARCH 1, 2015

With reference to the directives issued by the Securities and Commodities Authority regarding unclaimed cash dividends by shareholders of local listed public joint stock companies that are held with these companies in the period prior to March 1, 2015.

The Gulf Cement Company (P.S.C.) invites its shareholders whose shares are registered at Abu Dhabi Securities Exchange and certificates holders in the UAE are entitled for unclaimed cash dividends in the period prior to March 1, 2015, to visit the following link to make sure that the shareholder's name exists and is eligible for cash dividends (<https://gulfcement.ae/non-received-cash-gains-ar/>) and to provide the Company, in the event that the shareholder is entitled for cash dividends, with the following documents so as to collect the cash dividends:

1. A letter signed by the shareholder or his legal representative addressed to the Company and which includes a request to issue a cheque or make a bank transfer of the cash dividend amount.
2. Original Emirates ID of the shareholder and a copy thereof or the original passport of the shareholder and a copy thereof.
3. In the case of a general or a special power of attorney from the shareholder to a third party attorney, please provide the original POA duly notarized at the notary public together with a copy thereof, as well as the original Emirates ID of the attorney and a copy thereof or the original passport of the attorney and a copy thereof.
4. Any other requirements from the company.

Please note that effective February 14, 2021, dividends unclaimed by their beneficiaries will be transferred to the Securities and Commodities Authority, which will be responsible for disbursing the cash dividends to eligible shareholders upon claiming them. The Authority will publish a statement on the Authority and financial markets websites, explaining that it will assume this role and the details of it in due course.
